In 2014, the National Association of AAGs recognized H.P.E. for facilitating access to long-term care services for the Latino population. The NAA report stated, “projects that achieved their goals and that recipients did not benefit from a more comprehensive approach to alerting them about the assistance available to them.”

Supplementing the services offered through the Veteran-Directed Home and Community Based Services Program launched in 2013, the veterans who were served through the RSVP Program.

In 2013, AASCC launched a new website, grouping our many programs into neatly identified categories.

In 2013, AASCC adopted the tagline ‘Your Advocate for Independence to encourage the wide array of information and services offered to empower adults to remain as independent, informed and engaged as possible within their communities.’

2000–2014: Expansion of Services

In 2000, a new managed care program, the Agency on Aging of South Central Connecticut (AASCC), expanded the number of counties served to include New Haven.

In 2001, the CHC Program began a pilot project, RSVP (Retired Senior Volunteer Program) to serve older adults with disabilities identified as an ‘agency on aging’ and recipients were not required to have an individualized service plan (ISP) if they can meet similar functional needs as those in the current location in New Haven.

In 2002, the CHC Program began a pilot project, RSVP (Retired Senior Volunteer Program) to serve older adults with disabilities identified as an ‘agency on aging’ and recipients were not required to have an individualized service plan (ISP) if they can meet similar functional needs as those in the current location in New Haven.

SSSCA (Senior Street Sweaters) was incorporated in South Central Connecticut.

In 2003, the Neighborhood Service Center (NSC) became the Connecticut Elder Abuse Hotline.

In 2004, AASCC launched a new website, grouping our many programs into neatly identified categories.

In 2005, AASCC adopted the tagline ‘Your Advocate for Independence to encourage the wide array of information and services offered to empower adults to remain as independent, informed and engaged as possible within their communities.’

2013–2014: A Decade of Growth

In 2013, AASCC launched a new website, grouping our many programs into neatly identified categories.

In 2013, AASCC adopted the tagline ‘Your Advocate for Independence to encourage the wide array of information and services offered to empower adults to remain as independent, informed and engaged as possible within their communities.’

2013–2014: A Decade of Growth

In 2013, AASCC launched a new website, grouping our many programs into neatly identified categories.

In 2013, AASCC adopted the tagline ‘Your Advocate for Independence to encourage the wide array of information and services offered to empower adults to remain as independent, informed and engaged as possible within their communities.’

2013–2014: A Decade of Growth

In 2013, AASCC launched a new website, grouping our many programs into neatly identified categories.

In 2013, AASCC adopted the tagline ‘Your Advocate for Independence to encourage the wide array of information and services offered to empower adults to remain as independent, informed and engaged as possible within their communities.’

2013–2014: A Decade of Growth

In 2013, AASCC launched a new website, grouping our many programs into neatly identified categories.

In 2013, AASCC adopted the tagline ‘Your Advocate for Independence to encourage the wide array of information and services offered to empower adults to remain as independent, informed and engaged as possible within their communities.’

2013–2014: A Decade of Growth

In 2013, AASCC launched a new website, grouping our many programs into neatly identified categories.

In 2013, AASCC adopted the tagline ‘Your Advocate for Independence to encourage the wide array of information and services offered to empower adults to remain as independent, informed and engaged as possible within their communities.’

Support to Live at Home

• Information and counseling provided assistance to 2,524 callers: 3,319 were assisted with Medicare issues. 4,735 were assisted with community resources.

• 1,334 individuals received assessments for Meals on Wheels.

• Care management services were provided to over 3,100 individuals, helping them remain safer in their own homes.

• 24 Veterans were given the opportunity to select a self-directed model in which to receive their home care services.

• 135 individuals living in long term care facilities were assisted to develop their independent living skills.

Assistance & Support for Those Caring for Loved Ones

• 2,167 family caregivers were assisted with information about community resources & benefits, respite care, & training.

Opportunities for Staying Active and Healthy

• Volunteers spent over 40,000 hours in the local public schools tutoring children and working to improve educational opportunities. An additional 70,000 hours of meals were provided to preschool children.

• Over 70,000 hours of service were given to frail older adults.

• 50 older adults received skills and employment training, and ten were successfully placed in unsubsidized employment.

• 146 people completed Moving for Better Balance (Tai Chi) training.

• 25 people were trained as workshop leaders for the Live Well Center.

• 146 people completed Moving for Better Balance (Tai Chi) training.

• 25 people were trained as workshop leaders for the Live Well Center.

• 146 people completed Moving for Better Balance (Tai Chi) training.

• 25 people were trained as workshop leaders for the Live Well Center.

www.aoascc.org