

The Art of Aging

The Art of Aging is a celebration of creativity expressed by people over the age of 60 who have discovered the satisfaction of blending art and life.

*Artists,
you are invited!*

If you are 60 years and older, plan to submit your paintings or photography for display throughout the halls of the AOASCC building.

There is no registration fee & cash prizes will be award. Registration is required before artwork is dropped off. Visit our website for registration and artwork drop-off information.
