

Dorian Long

Ms. Long holds an MSW from Fordham University and has been with the State of Connecticut for over 10 years. In her current position, she serves as the director of the Social Work Services Division, overseeing service delivery of supports to diverse populations including older adults. In addition, she coordinates policy development, interpretation, and implementation; sets programmatic goals, objectives, and outcomes; and serves as the agency representative to local, regional, and national organizations.