

Glennie Harris – Roberts, LMSW, LMT

Her professional career in the field of social work spans over three decades with experience working with victims of domestic violence, mental illness, adults living with disabilities, and elder abuse. Glennie is graduate of Southern Ct. St University and Fordham University Graduate School of Social Services.

She is a social work supervisor with the CT Department of Social Services, of the Social Work Division. As a social work supervisor, her responsibilities include direct oversight of the New Haven social work staff and related programs which includes Protective Services for the Elderly. She has provided lectures, community education and served as an expert panelist on elder abuse symposiums.

Glennie is also a License Massage Therapist, LMT, who has practiced for over 10 years. She is currently working on a research project, which will address the development of massage protocols for persons who experience chronic pain related to the aging process.

She has a compassion for caregivers and special interest in persons living with Alzheimer's disease. This passion has led her to volunteer with the Alzheimer's Association of Ct. and will lead a virtual support group in the fall of 2020.