Individuals over the age of 75 in Connecticut have several options for receiving a COVID-19 Vaccine in the month of February

Updated February 4, 2020

We want to ensure that all individuals 75-years-of-age or older can receive a COVID-19 vaccine in the month of February:

- If you have an appointment and are happy with it – keep it! We look forward to seeing you soon.
- If you do not have an appointment or you are scheduled in late February or March, there are several options for you to get an appointment in the next weeks. Read on to learn more.

Options for scheduling a COVID Vaccine appointment

- Call the Vaccine Appointment Assist Line (VAAL) at 877-918-2224. The Assist Line can help you schedule at locations across the State of Connecticut, including in Middletown, East Hartford, Stafford Springs, Danbury, New Haven, and Stamford. The VAAL is taking calls between 8am-8pm, seven days a week (call this weekend!).
- Check for appointments in VAMS. There are several clinics with available appointments throughout the State. Click here for instructions for how to use VAMS. If you already have a VAMS account, log into vams.cdc.gov. In order to search for a new appointment, you must first cancel your scheduled appointment.
- CVS Locations: CVS is currently offering vaccine at four locations in Connecticut (Colchester; Putnam; Waterford; and Windsor Locks) and will be expanding to many more next week. Click here to schedule with CVS – and check back on February 11 for additional locations.
- Walgreens: Walgreens is currently offering vaccine at 12 stores in Connecticut (across East & Western, CT). Click here for more information and to schedule.
- Additional locations:
  - New Haven: The Cornell Scott Hill Health Center (203-503-3000) and the Fair Haven Community Center (203 871 4179) are offering COVID-19 vaccine appointments. Call to schedule.
  - Stamford: Will be running a clinic for individuals 75-years-of-age and older in Stamford all next week. Visit their website to book an appointment
